

Communications Intern – Spring 2012

Learn about economic development from the ground up as an intern in the Marketing & Communications division of the Georgia Department of Economic Development. Communications, marketing, journalism or English majors preferred. Excellent skills in writing, grammar and Microsoft Office. Familiarity with AP style.

Responsibilities include internal and external communications such as writing press releases, compiling daily news summaries, assembling and writing newsletter articles, photography, online research and occasional administrative functions.

Benefits: adding to your portfolio and meeting key Georgia business, tourism and economic development contacts; flexible schedule; and MARTA accessibility. The internship is currently unpaid due to state budget cuts but can be performed for class credit.

To apply, send resume, cover letter and two writing samples to: Stefanie Paupeck, Communications Specialist via email at spaupeck@georgia.org. No phone calls please. Position is open until filled.

About GDEcD

The Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD) is the state's sales and marketing arm, the lead agency for attracting new business investment, encouraging the expansion of existing industry and small businesses, locating new markets for Georgia products, attracting tourists to Georgia, and promoting the state as a destination for arts events and location for film, music and digital entertainment projects, as well as planning and mobilizing state resources for economic development.
