Let's go virtual!

Future, digital, together: These three words inspire the organisation of this year's virtual.MEDICA and make it possible for us to bring you this important global platform even in these challenging times. Thanks to virtual access, anyone located anywhere can discover cutting-edge medical technology, showcase their innovations to a global audience, network and, via knowledge transfer, stay up to date on the latest developments.

The virtual.MEDICA turns challenges into opportunities – join us and take advantage of yours!

Reach visitors virtually and cultivate contacts personally:

Meet your contacts: Use the matchmaking tool and talk to your customers and partners in personal video meetings.

Highlight your highlights: Publish up to 20 product/company videos on the MEDICA Portal.

Showcase your products: Take advantage of three product codes to publish up to 300 free detailed descriptions and photos.

Grab some attention: Profit from digital visitor streams generated by our virtual supporting program comprising a mix of live web sessions, pre-produced expert talks and discussion panels.
