Government and Commerce
The Consulate General of Switzerland in Atlanta has jurisdiction over Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas and the Cayman Islands. Switzerland has maintained a consular presence in Georgia since 1974. Peter Zimmerli has served as Consul General since 2017.

The Swiss Business Hub USA helps small and medium-sized U.S. companies do business in Switzerland. The regional office in Atlanta is housed at the Consulate and served by the Trade Commissioner, Kimberly Shulman.

The Southeast Chapter of the Swiss-American Chamber of Commerce is located in Atlanta, providing services and programs to promote the development of Swiss-U.S. business relations. Kurt Boehni serves as Chairman.

In July 2012, former Governor Deal led an economic development mission to Switzerland and The Netherlands. The delegation visited Zurich, Basel, Bern and Amsterdam to meet with business leaders to promote Georgia’s economy and expand export and investment opportunities. The Georgia Allies visited Switzerland in 2015.

The state of Georgia has had continuous representation in Europe since 1973. Since that time the office has assisted hundreds of European firms operating in Georgia and Georgia companies exporting to Europe. Sergio Domingues serves as managing director. Ulrike Schauerte manages trade for the state of Georgia in Europe.

Academics
The University System of Georgia (USG) offers at least ten study abroad programs to Switzerland, where students can study computing, architecture, international business, political science and German.

27 Swiss students were enrolled in USG schools during the 2020 school year.

Arts, Culture and Tourism
In 2019, more than 15,800 tourists from Switzerland visited Georgia spending $35.6 million.

The Alliance Française d'Atlanta featured a Swiss Movie Series in 2014 as part of its Francophonie programming.

Swiss-born pianist Gilles Vonsattel performed at the UGA Performing Arts Center in 2017. Atlanta musician, recording artist and music educator Elise Witt regularly presents her acclaimed singing workshops across the globe including Switzerland, where she was born.

In 2018, the Zurich Chamber Orchestra performed at Yamacraw Center for the Performing Arts as part of the annual Savannah Music Festival.
International Trade

EXPORTS: In 2020, Georgia exports to Switzerland totaled $348.2 million. Switzerland is the 26th largest export market for Georgia.

Top exports from Georgia to Switzerland include aircraft, gas turbines, screws, and pharmaceuticals.

Georgia leads the nation in the export of the following goods to Switzerland: aircraft, tractors, and screws and bolts.

IMPORTS: In 2020, Georgia imports from Switzerland totaled $649.3 million. Switzerland ranks 26th among Georgia’s importer nations.

Top imports from Switzerland to Georgia include waters, geological surveying equipment, sulfur compounds, brooms and brushes, and watches.

Capital Investment

There are at least 18 Georgia companies with operations in Switzerland, including but not limited to:
- Innomed
- Invesco
- Novelis
- Premiere Global Services
- UPS
- WestRock

There are at least 100 Swiss facilities operating in Georgia, of which at least 15-20 are manufacturing locations. These Swiss-affiliated facilities currently employ more than 9,400 Georgians.

Switzerland is an important investor in Georgia, ranking 13th among Georgia’s total investors based on total employment and 9th based on total number of facilities.

Transportation

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport offers daily direct flights between Atlanta and Zurich. 2020 international connectivity was limited by the COVID-19 pandemic. As restrictions ease, the airport expects a return to pre-COVID connections.

About GDEcD

The Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD) plans, manages and mobilizes state resources to attract new business investment to Georgia, drive the expansion of existing industry and small business, locate new markets for Georgia products, inspire tourists to visit Georgia and promote the state as a top destination for arts events and film, music and digital entertainment projects. For more information, visit www.georgia.org.

GDEcD’s Economic Development Representative in Europe

State of Georgia – Europe Office
Max-Weber-Platz 11
81675 Munich, Germany
T: +49 (0) 89 517 027 40

Sergio Domingues
Managing Director
State of Georgia – Europe
sdomingues@georgia.org

Hannah Berbner
Business Development Coordinator
State of Georgia - Europe
hberbner@georgia.org

Ellen Kraft
Business Development Manager
State of Georgia – Europe
ekraft@georgia.org

Ulrike Schauerte
Trade Representative
State of Georgia – Europe
uschauerte@georgia.org

*Information valid as of March 2021