

GEORGIA - KOREA COUNTRY CONNECTION

Government and Commerce

The Consulate General of the Republic of Korea is located in Atlanta and serves Georgia, Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The Republic of Korea has maintained a consular presence in Georgia since 1971. Mr. Yoonjoo Park has served as Consul General since June 2021.

The state of Georgia has had continuous representation in Korea since 1985. Peter Underwood serves as Managing Director in Seoul.

Atlanta is home to the Korea Southeast U.S. Chamber of Commerce, Korean American Chamber of Commerce, and the Korean American Coalition.

Governor Kemp led an economic development mission to Korea in June 2019.

Three Georgia communities have sister city agreements with South Korea: Atlanta - Daegu; Cobb County - Seongdong-Gu; and Gwinnett County - Gangnam-Gu.

Academics

The University System of Georgia (USG) offers 43 study abroad programs to South Korea in programs such as language, engineering, computing, business and education. As of Fall 2020, 1,808 Korean students were enrolled in USG schools.

Emory University provides faculty-led study abroad programs to Seoul as well as an exchange with Yonsei University. Georgia Tech offers a summer language intensive program as well as exchange programs with three partner universities.

Arts, Culture and Tourism

The first Korean-American co-production Papa, released in 2012, was filmed in Atlanta, Georgia.

Atlanta Ballet Company member Sujin Han is from South Korea. Eric Nam, the internationally recognized K-pop phenomenon, was born and raised in Atlanta, where he was a member of the prestigious Atlanta Boy Choir.

Every year the Korean American Association of Greater Atlanta hosts a three-day Korean Festival. The annual event attracts thousands.

In October 2018, the Consulate General of the Republic of Korea in Atlanta and The Korean American Association of Greater Atlanta sponsored the "Korean American Friendship Concert" in Duluth, Georgia to celebrate 50 years of the Korean community in Atlanta.

In 2018, more than 33,900 Koreans visited Georgia, spending more than $86.7 million

International Trade

The United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement (KORUS FTA) was signed on June 30, 2007 and went into effect on March 15, 2012. This comprehensive trade agreement eliminated tariffs and non-tariff barriers to trade in goods and services.

EXPORTS: In 2020, Georgia exports to Korea totaled $754.5 million. Korea is the 12th largest export market for Georgia.

Top exports from Georgia to Korea include aircraft, gas turbines, medical instruments, chemical woodpulp, and kaolin.

Georgia leads the nation in the export of the following goods to Korea: chemical woodpulp, kaolin, and ball or roller bearings.

IMPORTS: In 2020, Georgia imports from Korea totaled $7.15 billion. Korea ranks 4th among Georgia's importer nations.

Top imports from Korea to Georgia include motor vehicles, tractor parts, engines, bulldozers, and semiconductors.

Capital Investment

There are at least 19 Georgia companies with operations in Korea, including but not limited to:

- American Megatrends
- First Advantage Corporation
- InComm
- Novelis
- Unicoi Systems
- UPS

Georgia is home to at least 100 Korean facilities. These Korean-affiliated companies currently employ more than 9,400 Georgians.

Beginning in 2006, Kia made one of the biggest single foreign investments in the history of Georgia by establishing a state-of-the-art production facility in West Point, Georgia. Since then, Kia and its suppliers have helped create more than 14,000 jobs and currently produces more than 340,000 vehicles a year.

Sangsin Technology America, a global leader in brake friction materials and replacement parts, has created 200 jobs and invested $20 million in its first North American manufacturing facility in McDonough, Georgia.

SK innovation, a developer and manufacturer of lithium-ion batteries for hybrid electric vehicles, will create more than 2,000 jobs and invest $1.67 billion in a new manufacturing plant in Jackson County. SKI has committed to a second phase investing an additional $940 million and 600 jobs.

Hanwha Q CELLS Korea is a global leading photovoltaic manufacturer of high-performance, high-quality solar cells and modules. They created more than 500 jobs and invested $150 million in a new solar module manufacturing facility in Dalton.

Transportation

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport offers daily direct flights from Atlanta to Seoul, South Korea. 2020 international connectivity was limited by the COVID-19 pandemic. As restrictions ease, the airport expects a return to pre-COVID connections.

The Georgia Ports Authority (GPA) in Savannah has an established relationship with ports of Korea and offers seven regular shipping services to the Port of Busan. GPA's Brunswick Port also offers shipping services to Incheon, Masan, Pyongtaek and Kunsan.

About GDEcD

The Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD) plans, manages and mobilizes state resources to attract new business investment to Georgia, drive the expansion of existing industry and small business, locate new markets for Georgia products, inspire tourists to visit Georgia and promote the state as a top destination for arts events and film, music and digital entertainment projects. For more information, visit www.georgia.org.

GDEcD's International Representatives in Korea

Peter Underwood

Managing Director, State of Georgia – Korea
Suite 1705, Officia Building, 92 Saemunan-ro
Jongno-gu, Seoul 03186 – KOREA
T: +82 (2) 737.3222
punderwood@georgia.org

Ji-Yeon Kim
Director, FDI
jkim@georgia.org

Seunghun (Jacob) Lee
Trade Representative
slee@georgia.org

