Title: Regional Project Manager, EIRR

Entry Salary: $54 - 57k commensurate with experience

Division: Global Commerce

Location: Region 2
(Counties below)

Duties and Responsibilities:

The Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD) is the state's sales and marketing arm, the lead agency for attracting new business investment, encouraging the expansion of existing industry, locating new markets for Georgia products, attracting tourists to Georgia, promoting the state as a location for arts and film, music and digital entertainment projects, as well as planning and mobilizing state resources for economic development.

The mission of GDEcD's Global Commerce division is to market the state for business recruitment, existing business expansion, and small business development. The Regional Program is part of the Global Commerce structure and consists of 12 geographically delineated service delivery regions, maintaining one Regional Project Manager in each region.

The Regional Project Manager - Existing Industry and Regional Recruitment (EIRR) is responsible for business development efforts in the region. The successful candidate's primary duty is to assist both existing Georgia companies considering expansion and prospective companies considering a future location in their region-to positively influence investment decisions in Georgia. Working in close partnership with state, local and other officials, the primary goal is the advancement of job creation and investment in the region. The successful candidate will spend most days traveling within the region, meeting with business and community leaders, building important working relationships with stakeholders throughout the region. Specific duties include:

- learning the state’s incentive program, pro-business climate, community partnerships, and workforce;
- representing Georgia as the lead point of contact for companies considering expansion or new locations in the region;
- calling on community leaders to build value-added relationships;
- attending trade shows, conferences, and networking events to generate leads by developing strategic relationships with community, state, and consultant partners;
- forming and maintaining relationships with executive-level decision makers of existing and prospective companies;
- serving as the state’s first point of contact for communities, in regard to economic development efforts.
