

GEORGIA - DENMARK COUNTRY CONNECTION

Government and Commerce

Georgia is home to the Royal Danish Honorary Consulate, located in Macon. Denmark has maintained a Consular presence in Georgia since 1802. Christopher Smith has served as the Honorary Consul since March 2006. In 2016, Mr. Smith was knighted by Denmark's Queen Margrethe II for his service to the Danish government.

The Trade Council of Denmark is located in Atlanta. It is the governmental export and investment promotion organization under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark. The Council assists Danish exporters who wish to enter the U.S. market. The Atlanta office specializes in industrial machinery, agricultural machinery and the food and food processing industry. Carsten Rosendahl serves as the Danish Trade Commissioner.

Atlanta is also home to the Danish-American Chamber of Commerce (DACC). The DACC is an independent organization that supports and promotes successful development of the Danish-American community within the United States. Birgitte Hoven-Tolstrup serves as the current president.

The Scandinavian American Foundation of Georgia (SAFG) is located in Decatur. Founded in 1983, SAFG represents people from the Nordic countries of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden. SAFG works to support, promote and encourage the interchange of educational, cultural, and amateur athletic activities between Georgia and the people of Scandinavia in order to further mutual understanding, goodwill, and friendship.

The state of Georgia has had continuous representation in Europe since 1973. Since that time the office has assisted hundreds of European firms locating in Georgia and Georgia companies exporting to Europe.

The Georgia Allies visited Denmark in October 2019 during their annual economic development mission.

Academics

In the Fall semester of 2022, 27 Danish students will be enrolled in USG schools.

The COVID-19 pandemic affected study abroad programs around the world, but these programs are expected to return to former participation levels soon. In the past, the University System of Georgia (USG) offered at least six study abroad programs to Denmark, where students can study art, music, literature, media and communication.

The Georgia Institute of Technology offers two exchange programs in Copenhagen and graduate students spend time in Copenhagen as part of the Modern Architecture and the Modern City summer faculty-led study abroad programs.

Kennesaw State also provides programs for students to study abroad in Aalborg, Denmark as part of an International Student Exchange Program.

Arts, Culture and Tourism

COVID-19 severely impacted the tourism industry in Georgia, but international visitation is expected to reach past numbers soon. In 2021, 982 Danish visitors spent nearly $1.6 million in the state of Georgia.

The National Danish Performance Team visits Atlanta every spring during its World Tour. The 2017 performance featured their latest show IMANI.

The Danish Quartet performed in February 2017 at Clayton State University's Spivey Hall in Jonesboro.

International Trade

EXPORTS: In 2021, Georgia exports to Denmark totaled $71.8 million. Denmark is the 69th largest export market for Georgia.

Top exports from Georgia to Denmark include wood logs, unworked glass, prepared or preserved peanuts, synthetic staple fibers, and electric storage batteries.

Georgia leads the nation in the export of the following goods to Denmark: peanuts and glass in balls, rods, and tubes.

IMPORTS: In 2021, Georgia imports from Denmark totaled $267.8 million. Denmark ranks 42nd among Georgia's importer nations.

Top imports from Denmark to Georgia include measuring instruments for liquids and gases, optical fibers, vegetable saps, food production machinery, and tobacco.

Investment

At least 16 Georgia companies have operations in Denmark, including but not limited to:

- AGCO Corporation
- Crawford & Company
- Exide Technologies
- Georgia-Pacific
- Interface
- NCR Corporation
- PrimeGlobal
- The Coca-Cola Company
- Travelport
- Turner Broadcasting System
- UPS

There are at least 30 Danish facilities operating in Georgia. These Danish-affiliated companies employ more than 1,000 Georgians.

Transportation

Delta Air Lines offers daily one-stop flights from Atlanta to Copenhagen via Amsterdam or Paris.

International connectivity has been limited by the COVID-19 pandemic. As restrictions ease, the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport expects a return to pre-COVID connections.

About GDEcD

The Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD) plans, manages and mobilizes state resources to attract new business investment to Georgia, drive the expansion of existing industry and small business, locate new markets for Georgia products, inspire tourists to visit Georgia and promote the state as a top destination for arts events and film, music and digital entertainment projects. For more information, visit www.georgia.org.

GDEcD's International Representatives in Europe

Sergio Domingues

Managing Director
State of Georgia – Europe
T: (+49) 089.517.027.40
sdomingues@georgia.org

Ellen Kraft

Business Development Manager
State of Georgia – Europe
ekraft@georgia.org

Ulrike Schauerte

Trade Representative
State of Georgia – Europe
uschauerte@georgia.org

Hannah Berbner

Business Development Coordinator
State of Georgia – Europe
hberbner@georgia.org

*Information valid as of July 2022

We SPEAK Business

